

RONALD B. LAMM JR.

PROJECT MANAGER

FLETCHER MANAGEMENT COMPANY

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, FLORIDA

Ron Lamm's diverse background includes 25 years of engineering experience serving in positions of increasing responsibility involving home construction, yacht manufacturing, geotechnical engineering, civil engineering design and project management. Ron's varied background parlayed perfectly into his current role as a project manager for Fletcher Management Company.

In this role, Lamm generates costs analysis and feasibility studies of potential new projects and oversees legal documents for Fletcher communities such as covenants and restrictions, Home Owner Association manuals, builder contracts, architectural design guidelines and more. Lamm also manages WaterWays Township, a 2,300 acre master-planned community near Savannah, Georgia, in historic Richmond Hill.

Prior to joining Fletcher, Lamm's varied experience included a seven-year stint as a group leader with Hatteras Yachts, engineering positions with Pitt County Memorial Hospital and Law Engineering, both in North Carolina, five years with Prosser Hallock Engineers and four years with Wood Development, both in Florida. During these years of service, Lamm had the privilege to work for such well-respected clients as the Jacksonville Port Authority, St. Johns County School Board and The Mayo Clinic.

Lamm is a 1999 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, with a degree in Civil Engineering Technology. He and his family reside in Jacksonville, Florida.
